QUEEN BEE'S ART & CULTURAL CENTER: A CULTURAL HUB IN SAN DIEGO

For over two decades, Queen Bee's has been the heart of North Park's vibrant artistic community. More than just a venue, we're a community-focused space where artists, musicians, families, and nonprofit organizations come together to celebrate creativity and culture. From live music and dance classes to art exhibits and health clinics, Queen Bee's offers inclusive, enriching experiences for all.

As we work towards securing historical designation and raising funds for future growth, we invite you to join us in preserving this unique space that brings so much life to San Diego.

QUEEN BEE'S GALA – AN EVENING TO REMEMBER

On December 12th, join us for an extraordinary night of celebration, connection, and community support. The Queen Bee's Gala is your chance to contribute to preserving a local treasure, ensuring that Queen Bee's Art & Cultural Center continues its mission of providing a creative haven for artists, families, and local organizations.

Event Highlights

- Cocktail Hour & Live Jazz by Sasha Burton

Come be part of something bigger, as we look ahead to a bright future for Queen Bee's!

WHY SUPPORT QUEEN BEE'S GALA?

Your ticket or sponsorship at the Queen Bee's Gala is more than a donation – it's a commitment to the San Diego community. Here's how your support helps:

- Preserve a Historical Space: With your help, we can secure historical status for Queen Bee's, cementing our legacy as a community center dedicated to arts, culture, and public service.
- Support Inclusive Programs: Our initiatives range from free health clinics and family events to art workshops and music performances, all offered to support and uplift the local community.
- Create Opportunities for Artists & Entrepreneurs: Queen Bee's has long been a stepping stone for emerging artists and small business owners. Your contribution keeps this support system alive.

Join us at the Queen Bee's Gala and play a part in creating a lasting impact for North Park and beyond.
